St Mary the Virgin, Welwyn

Sunday 13th June 2010
The Second Sunday after Trinity

The Royal School of Church Music has encouraged churches to celebrate the role of music in worship this Sunday. The service can be followed in the white booklet

We warmly welcome all our visitors to this Service of Parish Communion to celebrate Music Sunday and hope you will stay behind afterwards for a cup of coffee.

We also welcome the Revd Guy Bustard, who will preside and preach for us this morning.

For those with a hearing aid an induction loop is fitted in this church for your use. There are also large print versions of the service and the hymn books available. Please ask one of the sidespersons.

Notices

Welwyn Festival Street Market : 9.00am - 12.30pm next Saturday 19th June. St Mary’s will be open as usual during the Street Market. There will be musical entertainment by Sherrardswood School Choirs at 10am and St Mary’s School Choir at 10.45am. The Bell Tower will be open for visits. If you are able to give two hours to help with refreshments and serving cakes this would be much appreciated. This is a lovely opportunity to welcome villagers to St Mary’s and it also generates a significant amount towards church funds. Please add your name to the list of volunteers on the table at the crossing. Please also help by making a cake for this event. We will be handing out paper plates after church after this service. Cakes can be brought to the office next Friday morning between 10-12noon or to New Church House on Saturday morning from 8.00am.

There will be a BIG FAIRTRADE SALE in Church House as part of the Street Market next Saturday morning 19th June, 9am - 12.30pm. Another sale will be held the following Saturday morning 26th June in Church House 10-11.30am as part of Welwyn Festival Week.

Next Sunday, 20th June, is the Third Sunday after Trinity. Coralie McCluskey will preside at Holy Communion at 8.00am. There will be Parish Communion with Holy Baptism at 9.30am. Coralie McCluskey will preside and preach. There will be a service of Holy Communion at 6.30pm in St Peter’s, Tewin. Diane Whittaker will preside and preach.

Tickets for the Welwyn Mysteries will be on sale in Church House after this morning’s service. Ticket sales are going well so please make sure you get yours in plenty of time to ensure your choice of dates. This promises to be a spectacular production combining music, dance and drama with a large cast, including children, drawn from our local community and drama groups. Everyone has worked really hard to put on this event to coincide with Welwyn Week so please come and support us.

A Food Hygiene Training Course has been arranged for those who use the kitchen in Church House and anyone who would be interested in food hygiene. The course will run over 2 evenings on Monday 5th and Tuesday 6th July starting at 7.00pm. You will need to be able to attend on both evenings. Certificates will be awarded at the end of the course. Please let me know if you would like to attend. There will be no charge to participants. Eunice Reddish

Music at the 9.30 service: Thank you for your comments on the new setting. As, on the whole, there has been a positive response, we will start to introduce other parts of the setting over the next month or so. MUSIC COPIES are available—please ask a sidesperson. Eric Pavyer.
